

Election of the Scottish Parliament

You have two votes

The diagram illustrates the two voting paths for the Scottish Parliament. A horizontal line at the top branches into two vertical paths. The left path is labeled 'Regional Members' and the right path is labeled 'Constituency Member'. Both paths have a downward arrow pointing to a table, with the text 'Vote once only (X)' above each arrow.

Regional Members
B Party
F Party
G Party
K Party
M Party
S Party
T Party
Y Party
A Individual Candidate
E Individual Candidate
P Individual Candidate

Constituency Member
C Candidate
F Candidate
G Candidate
N Candidate
R Candidate
Z Candidate	